

Front Wing

Creates downforce at the front, helping the car stick to the track.

Sidepods

Channel air through the car, creating downforce and improving stability.

Rear Wing

Generates downforce at the back, increasing grip and cornering speed.

